What a Show!

Show day dawned with the threat of rain in the air. Optimism abounded along with the usual Hawkesbury determination that the Show must go on, regardless. The fire for the hog & deer roast blazed, as the relentless procession of villagers trailed up to the marquee to set out their entries.

By lunchtime the Show ground and The Plain were buzzing with life. Floats and walking carnival entries assembled, ready for the crowning of the Carnival Queen, Hazel Rowland, with her attendants—India Ruthven and Daniel Wareham. A sudden darkening of the skies and a deep rumble of thunder prompted Master of Ceremonies, Martin Gardener, to bring the crowning forward by a few minutes. Her Grace, The Duchess of Beaufort duly crowned the Carnival Queen and the procession set off. A squall of rain ensued, but the crowds hardly seemed to notice as colourful floats and costumes passed by, with gymnasts providing a spectacular display of acrobatics.

The marquee was bursting with entries, the stalls were buzzing and the entertainment in the arena went down a storm. Another great Show day, thanks to all the volunteers and the entrants whose efforts go to make it a success, year on year. Here's to 2017!

Editorial

Fiona Writes...

Welcome to the bumper September issue of Hawkesbury Parish News.

Since our last issue, we've enjoyed the tremendous performance by Team GB at the Rio Olympics. The outstanding medal tally seemed to increase on a daily basis, with some amazing performances and surprise wins. How many of us arrived at work, bleary eyed after sitting up to watch Andy Murray or Mo Farrah, only to find that everyone else in the office stayed up to watch them too! I think it generated such a feel-good factor for the duration. Roll on the Paralympic Games this month. Details of the 7-a-side football fixtures are in this issue, so we can all tune in to watch Hawkesbury's very own Paralympian, James Blackwell competing for Team GB.

Show day has come and gone for another year — and what a day! The rain forecasted seemed certain to dampen the day, yet despite the thunder and a brief shower, the weather stayed fair. Reports emerged later that there had been flash floods in Didmarton and shops under water in Tetbury—that's how close it was! There was clearly someone righteous lurking in the crowd! The Show itself appears to have been another success, with a great turn-out, increased entries, and excellent entertainment. The queue for the deer & hog roast stretched right across the field, the bar seemed crowded all day and there was a seemingly never-ending mass of people enjoying tea and cake. The Acro Gymnastics team were a great addition to the carnival and the arena. Meirion Owen who entertained us with his sheepdogs and ducks was so impressed by the Show and the people, and said he would return like a shot!

A huge thank you to all those who volunteered, entered classes and came through the gate to support the day. An extraordinary amount of hard work and preparation made it yet another day to remember. Photos, results and raffle winners are all included in this issue, so settle down with a cup of tea and re-live the day in full.

HOW TO ENJOY JUNK MAIL

By Alan C. Porter

There was a time when junk mail presented a certain sort of bizarre enjoyment. It contained frivolous matters appertaining to bargains available in big stores offering things to purchase at a reduced price that you didn't want at full price in the first place.

Catalogues from garden centers. Now these I did quite like as they attempted to instill in me the idea that I would need a gnome to brighten up a dull corner of the flower bed, or a multi coloured solar lamp to bring colour to the garden during the hours of darkness.

Then there were the holiday catalogues full of smashing glossy pictures of faraway places that try to entice you from armchair to airplane. All worthy of a read, but not so these days!

Advertisers seem to have got a whiff that I am not as young as I should be to receive such reading material, now all I get are letters from funeral directors, medical insurance that I could apply for without any examination or some sort of health care that should I end up in hospital I would get free private treatment or methods to get me up the stairs without my feet touching the ground. These along with replacement windows or garage doors go straight into the bin without being read which is my way to enjoy junk mail.

Meetings are held at 8pm on the 4th Monday of the month in the Methodist Hall in Back Street.

HAWKESBURY GARDENING CLUB

www.hawkesbury-gardening-club.org.uk

I am writing this on 14th August at Pat & Jon Fisher's house in Saltdean, near Brighton and it comes to my mind that Gill and I have lived in The Row for 40 years. We moved into a small touring caravan that we had dragged into the garden two Saturdays before Show Day of 1976. I say 'the garden' but it was nothing of the sort. It was actually more of a tangle of brambles, nettles, elders, dandelions, dock, rabbits and scrap metal (including a motorbike). We had worried that the soil was going to be glutinous clay but we discovered to our delight that the previous 200 years of cultivation had produced a lovely loose top soil that gave little resistance to a spade and so clearing away a patch of weeds to grow some vegetables was reasonably easy. All the while Dora Thompson kept us supplied with cups of tea. My Dad showed me how to build a proper garden fire and we kept it going for many months and produced enough potash to last for years. The scrap metal filled a skip to the brim and the rabbits were discouraged from their depredations in a way that I would rather not disclose in polite company. Then on 28th August 1976 the long hot summer came to an end and we experienced our first Hawkesbury Show. We stood amazed as this little village put on a show to rival anything we had seen in elsewhere and we knew we had made a good move.

40 years on and the caravan has gone to the great holiday park in the sky, the rabbits have not dared to return, our garden has matured and Hawkesbury Show is still the best anywhere - and long may it continue.

And the Gardening Club? Well, on Monday 26th September we will have our AGM when we will have some drinks and nibbles and a quiz.

Our speakers for the next few months are :-

Monday 24th October – Arthur Ball – Birds, Tigers and the Taj.

Monday 28th November – Jane Moore – Colours in the Garden.

So why don't you come along and share in the fun. If you are not a member but would like to hear a speaker that takes your fancy then come along as a guest – fee £3.00. For further information contact Terry Truebody on 01454 238364.

Gill Morgan

On behalf of the Parish News and our readers, we would like to extend our sincere condolences to the family and friends of Gill Morgan.

Without Gill and her hard work over 25 years, the Parish News simply would not exist. Gill was also an enthusiastic supporter of the magazine in its current form and commented only last year that she felt it had now been brought "well and truly into the twenty-first century".

Gill was an avid fundraiser for the Children's Society, regular church-goer at St Mary's and member of the choir, and supporter of Hawkesbury Show over the years, often viewing the proceedings on the day, whilst labouring in the raffle tent. Both Jim and Gill contributed to and supported so many groups and events in the village over many years.

Gill will be sadly missed as a daughter, mum, sister, grandma, friend and neighbour. Our thoughts are with the family at this sad time.

Tour of Britain comes to South Gloucestershire

September sees the top level cyclists arrive in South Gloucestershire as part of the Tour of Britain.

Sir Bradley Wiggins should be among the riders, along with Mark Cavendish another of the big names due to feature, after returning from the Rio Olympics. The country's premier stage race takes cyclists from Glasgow to London between September 4-11, with Stage Five coming to South Gloucestershire on Thursday, September 8.

The cyclists set off from Aberdare, Wales, at 11am, with the route taking the pack into England and on to Wotton-under-Edge.

They will come through the village of Kingswood, and move swiftly on to Wickwar and along the B4060 into Chipping Sodbury. There, racers will go up the High Street and down Culverhill Road, past Chipping Sodbury School and on to Wapley.

The route continues past Westerleigh Crematorium and through Pucklechurch as the competitors make their way to Bath for the finish, which is currently estimated to be at 3.30pm.

Anyone who misses the stage will have a second chance to see the event on Saturday, September 10, when Bristol will host the penultimate day of racing.

The stage will include an individual time trial as well as a circuit race, both starting on Durdham Downs.

Final times have yet to be announced, but the Bristol action is set to get going at about 10am for the time trial and about 2.30pm for the circuit race.

Gill Morgan and Hawkesbury Parish News

Gill Morgan began her long association with 'The Hawkesbury Parish News' in September 1977. The first edition of the Parish News was actually printed in January 1976, and came into existence because Iain Marchant, Hawkesbury's vicar at that time, felt that "the area Church Magazine was too expensive, too church centred and too limited for local news". An editorial team was quickly assembled, consisting of Vanda Preece as Secretary, Iris Starling as Treasurer, with assistance from Thelma Isles and in just their second month, 110 magazines were sold. The first magazine was priced at 8p per copy, had a colour picture cover (printed by Mowbray, who supplied covers for Church Magazines) and contained a 4-page Deanery insert, 'The Sign', a pre-printed, compilation of articles, letters, adverts and a crossword. And of course there were the local articles, dates for the diary, news from local groups, such as the Mothers Union, WI, Football Club, Mums and Toddlers and the Primary School. There were church service times, recipes, poems and news of people who had moved into the village - all neatly typed, ON A TYPEWRITER and printed on white, or sometimes pastel coloured paper.

Just as The Parish News was becoming established, Iain was transferred to Newent, and the new vicar did not want to be involved with the magazine. This could have been the end of our local Parish magazine, but Gill stepped in, and along with Jane Hopes and John Weaver, they continued to produce a monthly Parish News, with much the same format, for the next few years. In 1981, the editorial team decided to do away with the printed covers and the Deanery insert, which had become too expensive. They chose the Hawkesbury Monument to feature on the front cover, where it has remained to the present day. The first two pages were still dedicated to Church news, times of services, readers and sidesmen, but a number of additional articles were making their appearance in the paper - Senior citizens fund information, items for sale, skittles and darts reports and Alan Porter's thoughts and musings were included for the first time.

After editing, typing, printing and distributing The Parish News for 25 years, working with a number of different co-editors and overseeing its increase to a 20 page magazine full of information and articles, reports from a range of organisations and societies, along with 5 pages of local advertisements, Gill retired from the role of editor. In the last edition that she helped to produce, December 2001, she wrote her last editorial and a final article about how the Parish News originated and her role in its development over the years. Since she started editing The Parish News, Gill kept one copy of each edition, passing her archives to Gill Carey and Vicky Rispin, who took over the role of editors in 2002. This archive provides a great source of village history and is a wonderful legacy of Gill's amazing 25 years with The Hawkesbury Parish News. We all owe her a huge debt of gratitude for ensuring the survival and continuation of our fabulous Parish News.

THE 27TH ANNUAL HAWKESBURY OPEN GOLF TOURNAMENT

On Saturday 6th of August the 27th annual Hawkesbury Open Golf Tournament descended upon the Cannons Court Golf Club for the very last time, as the course is being sold off for development.

Once breakfast had been consumed, this year's Mexican-themed tournament was launched by the Vera Bright Memorial Rocket, duly lit by Vera's son Simon, sporting a very fetching sombrero. In fact the sombreros proved sensible headgear, given the blue skies and sunshine!

If there were a prize for who could lose most balls, there would have been fierce competition. All around the course, whoops and groans abounded, depending on whose luck was in or out, accompanied by Mexican themed carpet-laying jokes — "Underlay! Underlay!" (See what we did there..?)

Back in Hawkesbury later for a quick shower and turnaround for the festivities and barbecue in the evening. Amidst renditions of Speedy Gonzales and various frantic, Mexican tunes, the "Mayor of Hawkesbury", Parish Councillor Mike Cox sported a Mexican Matador costume and his "mayoral regalia" to present the prizes.

Ladies Champion Hannah Pearce-Brown was presented with the cup, an inflatable cactus and a sombrero. The team award went to Paul Blackwell, Adam Harber and Shaun Chappell and The Hawkesbury Open Champion 2016 went to Phil Mack, who proudly wore the coveted jacket, along with a sombrero as he received the trophy.

Well done to Vernon Chappell, Ross Bezar, Shaun Chappell and Dick Blundell for another great day's entertainment. Thanks also to the sterling job done by the sombrero-clad barbecue team, led by Vera's son Simon, and aided by Dave Bright, Marlene, Audrey, Daphne, Christine.

Thanks also to Mark & Fiona Steeds for providing the food for the barbecue.

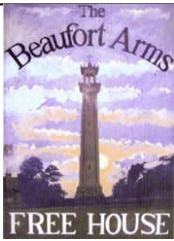

A tidy sum of £450 was raised as a result of the golf, barbecue and raffle, which was donated to the Props charity went down a treat and a good time was had by one and all.

*The Three Amigos and "Mayor of Hawkesbury"

The latest Hawkesbury Open Golf Championship

A superb £450 was raised for PROPS with a roughly equal amount raised by the BBQ and raffle teams, topped up with a generous £100 from the HOGS committee of Gnome, Ross, Shaun and Biggus Dickus (who also kindly supplied the charcoal).

Huge thanks to Vera's boy Simon, Mr Brightness and his bevvie of beauties on the BBQ, and 'Miss Parish News' Fiona on the raffle.

Beaufort News

This was on top of the £170 already raised for PROPS by Dilly and team on her BBQ a few weeks earlier.

The money will be invested in the new PROPS Market Garden at the rear of the Beaufort – feel free to check it out – another great effort by some really kind, generous, and talented people in the village.

Talking of which, tip top auctioneer Terry Tripp will be on hand again to oversee proceedings at our Annual Harvest Home Auction, this year on Saturday 3rd September, donations of produce not quite ready in time for the show will be gratefully received. Hammer start time 8pm.

At the Beaufort on Tuesday 13th September (at 8pm) is the Launch Night for the "Wulfstan Village Walk 2017" – a great chance to get fit and raise some money for your favourite local good cause – come along for details, all welcome.

Sunday September 18th we're proud to be a 'pit stop' once again on this year's Bristol 100 Bike Ride on behalf of the Stroke Association.

Finally, at the end of the month we hope to be hosting the Hogweeds' annual Kilcott Experience – please see our website for details and why not sign up for our blog?

HAWKESBURY HORTICULTURAL SHOW 2016

Another Showday over, and a jolly good time seemed to be had by all. Many visitors have passed on comments about how much they enjoyed the entertainment, the quality of the exhibits in the marquee and the overall organisation of the whole day. It starts with the wonderful and dedicated deer roast team, lighting the fire in the very early morning and concludes with the fabulous bar team continuing the festivities into the night.

Despite the overwhelmingly positive feedback, there have been a few mistakes/ omissions/complaints and several suggestions, mostly constructive, about how to improve next year. The Show's organising committee will be meeting for a feedback session, at 8.00pm at The Fox Inn on Tuesday 20th September. This is an opportunity to discuss all areas of the Show – what went well, areas for improvement, suggestions from visitors and villagers.

If anyone who came to the Show, has any comments or suggestions that would help the committee to make next year's Show even better, please let me know and I will pass on all comments at the meeting. You can email on vicky@coombeview.com or text on 07817913214, or call in and have a chat at 'Coombe View', High Street. If anyone would like to talk directly to the Show committee at the meeting, please feel free to drop in any time after 8pm.

A summary of the main issues and improvements for Showday 2017 (which, for your diaries and calendars, will be on the 26th August!) will be printed in the October edition of the Parish News.

Thank you, once again, to everyone who helped to make Showday 2016 such a great event – whether you were a volunteer helper, committee member, carnival entrant, exhibitor in the marquee, buyer at the produce auction, stall holder or visitor – and weren't we lucky with the weather!!

Vicky Rispin, Show secretary

Girlguiding Fundraiser Iceland 2017

Thank you to everyone who supported me at the village show.

It was the first fundraiser I have done so far this year, and I was delighted by the interest and support I received.

Emily Clements was the winner of the Guess-the-Teddy-Bear's-Birthday and no one has so far been able to balance a penny on a floating lemon. Thank you very much to whomever donated the plums; they went down a treat.

I have many fundraising ideas, which I am currently considering including a fun family event in February.

Thanks again,

Carys Wareham

Vintage Tractor Road Run

in aid of

Sunday August 14th saw the village come alive with vintage tractors. The tractors set off from Wickwar in the morning and putt-putted their way up via Kilcote and Starveal, via Back Street, all the way to Crooklands Field on France Lane. Quite a sight on an August Sunday lunchtime!

The faces of children and adults alike lit up at the sight of a seemingly never-ending convoy of vintage tractors, as it chugged down France Lane.

A large vintage fire engine unfortunately couldn't fit through the gate, so it remained opposite on France Lane, to guide passers-by to the event!

The long line of very hungry tractor drivers then queued up for food and refreshments, before they eventually headed off once again on their journey.

The aim of the gathering was to raise funds for the Bristol-based charity "The Jessie May Trust", which cares for children and young people with terminal illness, in their own homes.

Local ice creams were on sale, as well as a France Lane Farm barbecue and refreshments. Sally Bleaken also stepped up to provide tractor rides around the field for children, much to their delight!

Donations were collected on the day and at time of going to press, in excess of £750 had been raised, with the final total yet to be finalised.

All in all, a lovely family day out and village gathering, which raised a fantastic sum for such a great charity. A huge thank you should go to Drew and Karen Morgan, Audrey and Di and all the volunteers and helpers on the day and to all those who turned up and helped to raised that fantastic sum.

Charity boost from Badminton Horse Trials 2016

World Horse Welfare has announced that it raised more than £25,000 as a direct result of being appointed charity of the year at the 2016 Mitsubishi Motors Badminton Horse Trials.

The organisation said its link with the major event, which supports a different charity each year, was an overwhelming success.

Thousands of people visited World Horse Welfare trade stand and cross country marquee over the five days of the event in May, while two displays in the main arena generated "a brilliant reaction" from those who watched them.

This new play, celebrates the resourcefulness, characters & war effort of rural Wotton, mid-way through World War Two. A true story of a formidable woman & her hard-working household, rolling their sleeves up to care & provide for evacuated "babies" from blitzed cities in the South West.

There will be a fully licensed bar available at the interval

Hawkesbury Stores update

Recent weeks have seen yet more developments in Hawkesbury Stores. In August we managed to jump through the final financial hoops to get a new card payment machine installed. This has made shopping with us much easier for many customers, and Stores' volunteers have been pleasantly surprised at how easy it is to use!

September brings the term-time rhythm back to the village. Our volunteer coordinators hope that as the holiday season subsides, more people will choose to take up regular weekly slots in the shop. This will make the weekly rotas easier to manage, which is even more important as we hope to launch lunchtime opening in September!

Don't forget you can contact Moira Fozard to find out more about volunteering. Email moira@thefozards.co.uk or call 238281

We have continued to increase our product ranges. Recent additions have included delicious Holy Cow! Curry Sauces, a wider range of baking goods and installation of an Ecover Laundry liquid refill system. Simply bring a used container and fill it at £3.25 per litre – that's cheaper than Tesco!

Our wine selection has become a lot more interesting too, thanks to our new supplier Emma Roberts. Emma – who lives in Hawkesbury - is an internationally-renowned wine expert, and we recently published a fascinating interview with her on our website. Take a look under 'News' on www.hawkesbury-stores.co.uk.

We're excited to be holding our first Annual General Meeting for Stores' shareholders this month, where we hope to receive feedback from our investors. However, we welcome comments and suggestions at anytime from all our customers. We'll make sure a suggestion box is in place soon, but you can also email info@hawkesbury-stores.co.uk or simply chat to whoever is on duty.

They Think It's All Over...

How old do you have to be before you stop thinking in academic years? Even when my daughter has finished her education, I'm sure I'll still be treating September as the chance for new beginnings - a time to start learning new skills and mastering different subjects.

Not that I intend ever to take another academic exam. My ambition applies to a completely different kind of accomplishment: entering exhibits for the Hawkesbury Horticultural Show. The start of September means I have a whole year ahead to create a worthy winner in any category, whether handicraft, domestic, or horticultural.

I've been fortunate enough to win prizes in many different classes over the years, some due more to luck (e.g. the odd shaped vegetable) than skill (third prize for crochet - go, me!) But every Show Day, as I admire the astonishing array of exhibits in the marquee, I'm always inspired to take up a new hobby so that the following year I might compete in a different class.

So if you've been mourning the fact that Hawkesbury Show is over till next August, think again. There's never been a better time than September to start preparing your entries for next year's Show, while your inspiration is fresh and time is on your side.

Happy New Show Year, folks!

Bringing life back to the garden

Whilst Horton Court prepares itself for the start of its building renovation this coming winter, the National Trust team have not been idle and have been bringing back to life those once forgot borders and terraces of the garden, revealing the hard landscaping of the Arts and Crafts era which conjures up images of blousy borders of hardy perennials and shaped yew.

The garden team are also discovering more of its distant past, particularly terraces which hark back to the seventeenth century. Whilst a detailed conservation statement about the garden is in the process of being created, the work at Horton Court over the next few months will prepare the garden for more detailed planting in the later stages of the renovation project. There are many walls, steps and paths to be re-laid or rebuilt and weeds to be cleared, which in itself is a major undertaking.

Many thanks to those who have already kindly given up your time, and if you're interested in helping in the garden please do contact me at jean.hume@nationaltrust.org.uk

HAWKESBURY UPTON TENNIS CLUB

September 2016

<http://hutennis.wixsite.com/hutc>

Pub Off has spent most of the last month bobbing around in the South Atlantic worrying about oil. This month's communiqué therefore relies largely on the memory of Madam Seat. Hold on tight folks, anything could happen here.

First of all, we would like to extend the warmest of welcomes to our new members. The McLaughan family have joined us, along with Juniors Lucas Walker, Ed Musty, Ben Jones and Alisha White. Praise and honours to Ross and Zach for doing such a fantastic job of making the younger newbies feel at home. We have created a WhatsApp group called HUYs (Hawkesbury Upton Youths) in addition to DAPs so the various age groups can negotiate when to play.

Our next goal is to encourage the Youth Club and Girl Guides to start using the courts.

Up to now there has been a theoretical minimum age limit at club nights, but just forget it – OK? Our youth wing has been turning up in force. They have paid their subs, bless them, but in anything like a just world they would be receiving Carer's Allowance. Thanks to the younger element the Hawkesbury Deuce, hitherto declared when all the gathered wrinklies had completely forgotten the score, has become a thing of the past. And they are so patient about telling us where to stand next.

Our strawberries and cream event was a great success. The strawberries remained mostly stationary, as planned. The sun shone, which exceeded expectations, and a splendid bunch of people turned up. Even better, there was not a grunt to be heard – we are not counting one small squawk when Madam Seat slipped gracefully from her chair to the ground. This may have had something to do with adding Pimm's to the mix. The committee has voted to seek a drinks cooler in Tennis Club Racing Green.

If you remember one thing from these ramblings, please remember this: your tennis racquet does not cease to be when summer ends. That handle is still waiting, ready and willing to plop a ball over the net against all odds. We will continue unabated in balaclavas, long johns and mittens (sailing gloves are a good alternative) as long as there is no snow on the ground – tennis balls do not bounce off snow. This will require some flexibility about timing as the evenings shorten, but as we are nearly all at school, retired, or generally indigent that is hardly a challenge.

South Gloucestershire Councillor's Report

Policies, Sites and Places DPD

The Policies, Sites and Places (PSP) plan for public consultation

The plan provides detailed planning policies that the council will use when making decisions on planning applications and also protects some of our much valued open spaces by designating them Local Green Spaces. You may have noticed notices around the village advertising the spaces which will receive the designation however there are many areas not covered by this protection and you may wish to write and object to their exclusion; this includes the allotments, the Plain, the play space on Birgage Road, and Sandpits Lane. Maps and details are in the shop.

A planning inspector will then consider it at an examination in February/March 2017, with B

Change to Bus Timetables – 4th September

There have been changes to the Supported Bus services which include the 84 and 86 and the introduction of the new 85. Stagecoach have won the new tender and new timetables have been published, with an improvement in the service to Yate and Wotton. I have asked for further clarification on the times for the school services.

Changes to Bin Collection—will mean

- all recyclables will be collected on the same day of the week (ie plastics, paper, cardboard, glass etc.)
- No longer collecting engine oil/ car batteries – taken to Sort It site.
- Residents can request additional recycling boxes.
- Paper recycling bags no longer available.
- 240 litre black bins replaced by 140 litre – collected fortnightly.
- Separate nappy collections.

An officer has been invited to come along to parish council to explain the new collection.

Grants for central heating systems now available –tight time scale

Households that currently don't have central heating may be eligible for a grant of up to £4,500 to have a new system installed.

The funding is available until end of August 2016 and will help households overcome the significant barrier of high upfront costs by funding the installation of complete central heating systems, including the heating source, pipework and radiators.

Hawkesbury notes

In August 1803, Henry Jones Randolph, born in 1778, was installed as curate at St. Mary's, Hawkesbury during the incumbencies firstly of Christopher Swainson, and later John Banks Jenkinson, before being himself appointed vicar in 1813 (the year following John Banks' cousin Sir Robert Jenkinson, Baron Hawkesbury, later Lord Liverpool, being appointed prime minister).

Henry Jones Randolph was the son of William Randolph of Bristol and his wife Elizabeth. William, born in 1727, was a Bristol merchant, initially (1739) with Sedgley, Hillhouse & Randolph, and then, after that company's insolvency in 1768 with the firm of Stevenson, Randolph & Cheston, which was itself dissolved in 1776 after Stevenson's bankruptcy, both companies being primarily concerned in the transportation of convicts to America. In 1789, at a meeting of Planters, Merchants and Manufacturers in Bristol, William Randolph was amongst the majority who voted against the abolition of the slave trade between Africa and the British West-India Islands.

William shot himself behind a hay rick near Bristol in 1791 when his son Henry was 13 years old; the coroner's verdict:

William's father (Henry Jones Randolph's grandfather), was Isham Randolph of Turkey Island, Virginia, who married Jane Rogers in London in 1717; their oldest daughter Jane married Peter Jefferson in 1739, and they in turn had a son Thomas, born in 1743, who was the principal author of the American Declaration of Independence in 1776. Thomas Jefferson, the first cousin of Henry Jones Randolph, Hawkesbury's vicar 1813-1849, was the 3rd President of the USA from 1801 to 1809.

A tramp got off at the Pennsylvania depot one day, and for a year he begged on the streets for a living. He said on one occasion, he touched a man on the shoulder and asked him "Mister, please give me a dime" As soon as I saw his face I recognised my old father. "Father, don't you know me?" I asked. Throwing his arms around me, he cried, "I have found you, I have found you. All that I have is yours!" The tramp, who went on to become a Christian, went on to say "Man, think of it, that I, a tramp, stood begging my father for ten cents, when for 18 years, he had been looking for me, to give me all he was worth!"

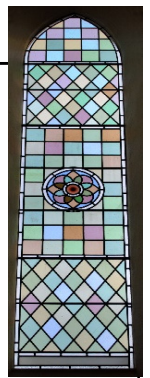

In the Bible, Jesus said, in the story of Zacchaeus, "The Son of Man (Jesus) came to save those who are lost. In the story, the father had been seeking, and he found his son, who was lost. Jesus is still seeking those who are lost, those who will not accept the offer of salvation that He gives.

Letter from the Vicar – September 2016

Dear Friends,

I hope you have had a bit of a rest over the Summer and are ready to celebrate the Harvest Festival. There are services in all the villages to thank God for the abundance of nature and to get together for this annual village gathering. I hope very much you will make an effort to come together with others and sing the old favourites in church and to help celebrate the traditions of village life. Most celebrations include an element of social relaxing with a few drinks and eats. So don't miss this traditional aspect of country living.

You may find yourself on a mailing list which I have been hard at work over the Summer putting together. It means that I may be sending you the odd pertinent email which may interest you. If I do not have your email address, then I can not include you in the mailing. So, do please feel free to send me your email address if you do not receive anything over the next few months!

As you know it is for me a great privilege to serve you as your Parish Priest and am happy to call round for a coffee if you wish to have a chat at any time. My email address is below and is the easiest way of making contact.

With my very best wishes,

Best wishes,

Richard Thomson, Vicar.

The Incomparable Jacqui Dankworth
"Shakespeare and all That Jazz"

Jackie Dankworth and Friends are coming to Chipping Sodbury on Friday 30 September. They will be performing in the Town Hall at 7.30 pm (doors open from 6.30 pm) and tickets are still available from www.ticketsource.co.uk/csmusicsociety/ or the Box Office on 01454 315741.

This new incarnation of "Shakespeare and all That Jazz" will feature the incomparable Jacqui Dankworth on vocals, accompanied by her "Friends".

As this year is the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death Jacqui thought it would be most appropriate, to visit the musical settings of Shakespeare's poetry inspired by, and taken from, the seminal 1964 album "Shakespeare and all That Jazz" composed by her late father, Sir John Dankworth, for her mother, Dame Cleo Laine.
